Resources for Parents and Caregivers

Title	Description	Tips for the Reader
Childhood Traumatic Grief:   Information for Military Parents or   Caregivers   National Child Traumatic Stress   Network   Childhood Traumatic Grief:   Information for Parents and   Caregivers   National Child Traumatic Stress   Network	This guide looks at the situations specific to military families such as prolonged deployments and serving in harm's way. A more general guide for adults in addressing the grief of children who experience sudden or violent loss.	This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children. Available in English and Spanish. This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children. Available in English and Spanish.
Guiding Adults in Talking to Children about Death and Attending Services National Child Traumatic Stress Network	This piece turns its advice from the actual act of bereavement to the public rituals that surround death.	This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children. Available in English and Spanish.
The Power of Parenting: How to Help Your Child After a Parent or Caregiver Dies National Child Traumatic Stress Network	This specific guide explores the most immediate relationships of childhood, that of parents and caregivers.	This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children. Available in English and Spanish.
Parent Guidelines for Helping Youth After a Mass Violence Attack National Child Traumatic Stress Network	This guide distinguishes the experience of mass violence as distinct from that of other traumas.	This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact youth. Available in English and Spanish.
Parent Guidelines for Helping Youth after a Bombing/Tornado/Wildfire/ Earthquake/Arson/Pandemic National Child Traumatic Stress Network	These brief tip sheets are targeted in response to each specific type of disaster, as distinguished from general overviews.	This series of resources targets the experiences of youth who have survived weather-related or human- made disasters. Available in English and Spanish.
Tip Sheet for Parents on Media Coverage of Hurricanes/Violence National Child Traumatic Stress Network	This guide offers advice on decisions parents must make about what reporting and how much media coverage is appropriate and helpful for children and youth.	This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.

Coping with Unconfirmed Deaths: Tips for Caregivers of Children and JeensThe uncertainty of an unconfirmed death and the lack of regularized ublic rituals to acknowledge this situation are at the center of this article's guidance.This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Parent Tips for Helping Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After DisastersEach piece in this collection of resources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a Disaster CollectionThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by disaster.
Teens National Child Traumatic Stress Networkpublic rituals to acknowledge this situation are at the center of this article's guidance.relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Parent Tips for Helping Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After Disasters National Child Traumatic Stress NetworkEach piece in this collection of resources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a Disaster Centers for Disease ControlThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Coping with Unconfirmed Deaths:	The uncertainty of an unconfirmed	This series of resources
National Child Traumatic Stress Networksituation are at the center of this article's guidance.of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Parent Tips for Helping Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After DisastersEach piece in this collection of resources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health RetworkThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Tips for Caregivers of Children and	-	0
Networkarticle's guidance.children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Parent Tips for Helping Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After DisastersEach piece in this collection of resources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a DisasterThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Teens	public rituals to acknowledge this	relationships and situations
Parent Tips for Helping Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After DisastersEach piece in this collection of resources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.National Child Traumatic Stress NetworkThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	National Child Traumatic Stress	situation are at the center of this	of loss of life that impact
Parent Tips for Helping Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After Disasters National Child Traumatic Stress NetworkEach piece in this collection of resources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a Disaster Centers for Disease ControlThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Network	article's guidance.	children and youth.
Parent Tips for Helping Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After Disasters National Child Traumatic Stress NetworkEach piece in this collection of resources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.This series of resources targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a Disaster Centers for Disease ControlThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special Collection Natural Hazards CenterThis collection of materials includes of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by			Available in English and
Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After Disasters National Child Traumatic Stress Networkresources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a Disaster Centers for Disease ControlThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special Collection Natural Hazards CenterThis collection of materials includes of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by			Spanish.
Adolescents/Infants and Toddlers/Pre-School Aged Children/School-Aged Children After Disasters National Child Traumatic Stress Networkresources is targeted to a particular developmental stage.targets the specific relationships and situations of loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a Disaster Centers for Disease ControlThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special Collection Natural Hazards CenterThis collection of materials includes of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Parent Tips for Helping	Each piece in this collection of	This series of resources
Children/School-Aged Children After Disastersof loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.National Child Traumatic Stress NetworkThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special Collection Natural Hazards CenterThis collection of materials includes of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by		resources is targeted to a particular	targets the specific
Children/School-Aged Children After Disastersof loss of life that impact children and youth. Available in English and Spanish.National Child Traumatic Stress NetworkThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special Collection Natural Hazards CenterThis collection of materials includes of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by		- ·	relationships and situations
National Child Traumatic Stress NetworkAvailable in English and Spanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a Disaster Centers for Disease ControlThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Children/School-Aged Children After		-
NetworkSpanish.Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a DisasterThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Disasters		children and youth.
Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health Issues After a DisasterThis brief article outlines the risks for children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.This is a general introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	National Child Traumatic Stress		Available in English and
Issues After a Disaster Centers for Disease Controlfor children after a disaster and recommends coping skills.introduction to ways in which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special Collection Natural Hazards CenterThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Network		Spanish.
Centers for Disease Controlrecommends coping skills.which disasters negatively and disproportionately harm children.Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Your Child Is at Risk for Mental Health	This brief article outlines the risks	This is a general
Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Issues After a Disaster	for children after a disaster and	introduction to ways in
Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Centers for Disease Control	recommends coping skills.	which disasters negatively
Children and Disasters Special CollectionThis collection of materials includes fact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.These articles are brief, drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by			and disproportionately
Collectionfact sheets, tools and assessments of how location impacts the vulnerability of children.drawn from a variety of disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by			harm children.
Natural Hazards Centerof how location impacts the vulnerability of children.disciplines and are intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Children and Disasters Special	This collection of materials includes	These articles are brief, vulnerability of children. intended for a broad audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Collection	fact sheets, tools and assessments	drawn from a variety of audience of public health practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by	Natural Hazards Center	of how location impacts the	disciplines and are practitioners, emergency managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by		vulnerability of children.	intended for a broad managers, policy makers, journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by			audience of public health journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by			practitioners, emergency interested in the ways children are impacted by			managers, policy makers, children are impacted by			journalists and others interested in the ways children are impacted by disaster.